We have introduced new process of Supplier addition that newly added Supplier will have Status as unapproved initially and it will not be visible on all transactional pages. As we change the status of supplier to "Regular" or "On Trial" it will be made visible on these pages. We have separate rights for the supplier status change so that it keeps control to the changing supplier status.